

THATO KEBUE

FOOTBALL PLAYER (DEFENDER CB/RB)

Thato Kebue is a defender from Palapye in the central district from Botswana. He started his career at Pilikwe United youth team in 2011, it took him 2 years to get promoted to the first team where he was used as a right back.

He went on to join the premier league side Motlakase Power Dynamos in 2014 to 2016 where he helped them avoid relegation. Thato was then scouted by one of Botswana's big giant known as Mochudi Centre Chiefs in 2016 where he cemented his position as a central defender. He helped Magosi as it was affectionately known to runners up position during the 2016/2017 season.

In 2017/2018 he was one of the most influential players in the team after scoring 4 goals as vice-captain. He went on to win young player of the season in 2018/2019.

After a very pleasing season, Thato was then scouted to join Jwaneng Galaxy in mid-season of 2018/2019 where his team finished runners up during his maiden season. He helped Galaxy win its 2nd Mascom top 8 trophy before winning the 2019/2020 league title.

Thato also has tremendous international experience, he helped Botswana national under17 team to qualify for Under 17 Africa Nations Cup in 2013 in Morocco. Played in the CAF Confederations Cup with Jwaneng Galaxy. World Cup and AFCON qualifiers are some of the competitions he competed in with the National senior team as well as the COSAFA Cup.
